Very Disco Entertainment - Terms and Conditions

1. A booking is not deemed to be confirmed until the customer has received their invoice.
2. Financial settlement to take place by cash at the start of the performance, or online no later than three days prior to the performance.
3. If cash payment has not been received by the DJ within the first hour of the performance, the music will be switched off until payment has been made in full.
4. In the event of the customer wishing to cancel, the customer will contact Very Disco Entertainment by telephone and later confirm in writing. Very Disco Entertainment will refund any advance payment.
5. Only those named on the Very Disco Entertainment insurance policy are permitted to handle/use Very Disco Entertainment's equipment. The use of Very Disco Entertainment's equipment by third parties (Artist; Musician; Singer) is strictly forbidden.
6. Very Disco Entertainment reserves the right to substitute a similar disco service in the event of Very Disco Entertainment being unable to appear for any reason.
7. Very Disco Entertainment will arrange with the management of the venue to allow suitable time for the installation, dismantling and removal of equipment (normally one hour).
8. Very Disco Entertainment will accept music requests in advance and will play up to 5 (five) of the customer's chosen requests.
9. Very Disco Entertainment will accept music requests at the event and may download up to 3 (three) songs via Mobile Broadband, subject to availability (iTunes Store) and network coverage.
10. Very Disco Entertainment will not play songs with explicit or offensive language, or any track that the DJ considers would cause offence to any guests attending the function.
11. Very Disco Entertainment will respond to requests from the customer and venue management as to volume, positioning of equipment, the time music has to be switched off and any other reasonable request.
